Summer Song

By John Ciardi

By the sand between my toes,
 By the waves behind my ears,
 By the sunburn on my nose,
 By the little salty tears
 That make rainbows in the sun
 When I squeeze my eyes and run,
 By the way the seagulls screech,
 Guess where I am? At the!
 By the way the children shout
 Guess what happened? School is!
 By the way I sing this song
 Guess if summer lasts too long;
 You must answer Right or!

Congratulations to our Summer Reading winners!

The Bookworm Club for children ages 8-12

Wednesday, September 2nd at 4 p.m. We will be discussing the book,
From the Mixed-Up Files of Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler by E.L. Konigsburg.

Claudia and her brother, Jamie, decide to run away to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City, and find themselves caught up in the mystery of an angel statue that the museum purchased at auction for a bargain price. The statue is possibly an early work of the Renaissance master, Michelangelo, and therefore worth millions. Or is it? Claudia is determined to find out. Her quest leads her to Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler, the remarkable old woman who sold the statue, and to some equally remarkable discoveries about herself.
