Teen Advisory Board

The Teen Advisory Board is a great way to meet other teens. If you are between the ages of 12- 18, love the library, want to help with Teen book reviews, and do fun things with others like you, consider coming to our meeting. Non-T.A.B. members are welcome to come and meet the T.A.B. group, see what we do, and have fun too. * This looks good on a college application!

TAB Thursday, January 31st at 4:30 p.m. The attendees will learn about sand art/sand animation and create a sand bottle.

After Hours Teen Gaming Xbox 360 Jan 18, 2013 5-8 p.m.

*Teens ages 12-18 yrs., registration and parent permission form required.

Kids’ Korner January 2013

STORYTIMES

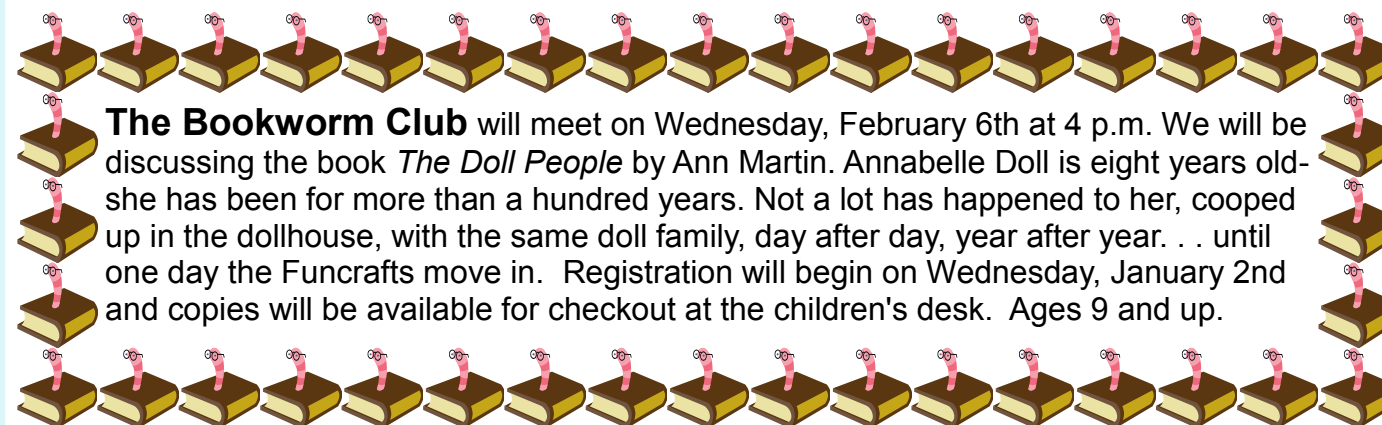

Weekly during February and March
 Sign up once; attend all eight weeks!
 Registration is required.

Signups are now underway for BABY-TIME with Mrs. Laboucane. Babies from 0-36 months with a caregiver are invited to come for stories, music and Beebo, the sign language bear! Choose Tuesdays 9:30-9:50a.m. or 11:00-11:20a.m.

Register now for FEED ME A STORY with Mrs. Mueller. Children ages 3-5 with an adult will enjoy books, rhymes, fingerplays and other age appropriate activities. Choose Tuesdays 6:45-7:15 p.m., Wednesdays 11:00-11:30 a.m. or Thursdays 1:00-1:30 p.m.

Check out our NEW story time - SCHOOL – AGE STORYTIME - for children ages 6-8 with Miss Jen. We will read books, have fun activities, play games and create crafts. Thursdays at 4:00-4:45 p.m.

Registration begins on Wednesday, January 2nd. Register for storytimes on our website or by calling the children’s department at 330-854-4148.

The Bookworm Club will meet on Wednesday, February 6th at 4 p.m. We will be discussing the book The Doll People by Ann Martin. Annabelle Doll is eight years old- she has been for more than a hundred years. Not a lot has happened to her, cooped up in the dollhouse, with the same doll family, day after day, year after year. . . until one day the Funcrafts move in. Registration will begin on Wednesday, January 2nd and copies will be available for checkout at the children's desk. Ages 9 and up.

SNOWMAN-Y BOOKS—SO LITTLE TIME

Children of all ages are invited to participate in our Winter Reads program from January 1 through February 28.

1. Look for a snowman bundle to check out.
2. Remove the snowman; put your name on the front and your phone number on the back.
3. Add your snowman to our wall. There is no limit to the number of snowmen you may have.
4. All snowmen will be entered into a drawing for a chance to win a gift bag!

INSIDE CONNECTION

Tax forms-the Library will be receiving tax forms this year. This is information from the IRS: The IRS is aware of the great interest in the 2012 tax forms, instructions and publications, and therefore, is shipping tax products as they become available. Since the availability of some tax products is impacted by pending congressional action, please note that instruction booklets may arrive weeks after you receive tax forms this year.

We thank you for your patience.

Homework Help: Did you know the Library can help you find information to help with your homework or research paper? The Library has access to many good resources to get you started. From the Library's homepage click on the tab marked 'research' for the list of resources.

Ereaders: Did you get an ereader for Christmas? The Library has access to ebooks. Stop by the Reference desk and we will show you how to download to your device.

Book Discussion

Book Discussion: Book Discussion resumes in February with a new day and time: our first meeting is February 19 @ 6:30, the third Tuesday of each month (except December and January). February's title up for discussion is Violets of March by Sarah Jio. To reserve a copy of the book, please stop by the Reference Desk.
